

Office of Youth Affairs

The Office of Youth Affairs is a central coordination agency. It provides a whole-of-government approach to policy priorities for young people aged 12 to 25 years and develops effective communication links between young people, Government and the community.

The office supports initiatives that improve young Territorians' personal wellbeing, promotes their positive achievements and assists them to reach their goals. The office also supports initiatives that provide positive recreational and developmental opportunities for young Territorians.

Our programs and services

Major activities of the office include:

- Youth Round Table
- National Youth Week
- Youth Engagement Grants Program
- Sponsorship of Awards
- Youth Research
- Coordination, monitoring and review of the Northern Territory Government's youth policy framework

Our clients and stakeholders

Our clients and stakeholders include:

- Young Territorians
- Minister for Young Territorians
- Northern Territory Public Sector agencies
- Community organisations, including the youth sector
- Media
- Wider community, including the private sector and individuals that have an interest in the services we provide

visit www.youth.nt.gov.au